Make a difference in your community

Be a part of the Public Art Commission

 Positions are available on the City of Richmond's Public Art Commission, which provides direction and advises City Council on the management and implementation of the Richmond Public Art Program.

Commission members may include artists, professional art consultants, urban design professionals and citizens who are interested in public access to the arts. Meetings will typically be scheduled for the third Wednesday evening of each month.

One position for an artist and one position for an urban design professional (architect, landscape architect, planner, urban designer, engineers or developer) are available for two-year terms expiring December 31, 2009.

For further information, please contact Eric Fiss at 604-247-4612.

These are voluntary positions, with no remuneration. If you are interested in serving your community, please submit a completed application form, along with a resume, to the attention of: David Weber, Director, City Clerk's Office, no later than Friday, March 14.

Application forms can be obtained at the Information Counter, main floor, Richmond City Hall, 6911 No. 3 Road, or through the City website at www.richmond.ca/cityhall/council/boards/advisory.htm.
