RCMP Speaker Series

"Giving Kids What They Need To Succeed"

The Richmond RCMP, in partnership with the City of Richmond Parks Recreation and Culture, are offering the first in a speaker series:

Asset Building: Giving Kids What They Need To Succeed is a workshop about what all of us can do together to create an asset-rich environment in which adults and young people can be honoured, respected, supported, challenged and encouraged.

It will be of interest to parents, grandparents, coaches, public service employees, service clubs, educators, business leaders — anyone with a sincere and healthy interest in giving kids what they need to succeed.

Wednesday, April 8
7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
South Arm Community Centre
8880 Williams Road

Please register for the free workshops through Parks Recreation and Culture, 604-276-4300
