rooftopgarden

- Where nature paints and art blooms
- Where plants gather and people grow
- Where seeds of tradition harvest innovation

Richmond's rooftopgarden, the urban cousin of Terra Nova, is located at the Richmond Library/Cultural Centre. Formerly a homage to concrete, the space has been transformed into a green oasis. The garden will host outdoor arts events and innovative programs ranging from growing food in small spaces to water conservation techniques.

For Rooftop Garden viewing times please check our website:

PRESENTING SPONSOR

Richmond Media Lab

The Richmond Media Lab, presented in partnership with Richmond Steel Recycling Ltd., offers filmmaking, podcasting, music recording, digital art and more for people of all ages. Stocked with state of the art equipment, learning and creative opportunities abound at this unique facility located in the Library/Cultural Centre at 7700 Minoru Gate. For more information visit www.richmond.ca/artscentre, or contact us at medialab@richmond.ca or 604-247-8303.

THE RICHMOND YOUTH MEDIA PROGRAM

The Richmond Youth Media Program is a free program, created in partnership with the City of Richmond and the Richmond Collaborative Committee for Children and Youth (RCCCY), supported by the Vancouver Coastal Health Sharon Martin Community Health (SMART) Fund.

Programming includes drop-in sessions (during which supervised youth can work independently) and a variety of structured classes. Participants learn media literacy skills that are relevant to their interests and are placed in a supportive environment where they can engage with positive role models.

Anyone can refer youth (ages 13 to 24 years) to the Richmond Youth Media Program, including youth themselves. Please check out our website at www.richmond.ca/medialab to download a referral form and get information on the summer drop in schedule.
