Easy Guide Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services

Richmond has an abundance of modern recreation facilities, a diversity of cultural experiences and an extensive system of parks and scenic trails – all contributing to a healthy active community and enhancing the quality of life for children and families.

Parks, Recreation and Culture Guide

Designed to allow easy access to information on events, activities, programs and services provided by Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services and its community partners.

Each age section in the Guide includes program information on swimming, skating, arts, culture, heritage, health, fitness, nature, daycamps (summer only), sports and general interest.

Age sections in the Guide

- Preschool
- Children
- Preteen/Youth
- Adult
- Older Adult

Other sections to reference

- Middle Pull-out: event and exhibitions, schedules and fee information for swimming, skating, open gyms, drop-in programs, racquet sports and fitness.
- Diversity Services: information for people with disabilities, in financial need or from ethno-cultural groups
- Facility Listings: address, phone numbers and hours of operation
- Community Partners: listing of community organizations in Richmond

Pick Up a Copy of the Guide

The guide is published 3 times a year: Spring, Summer and Fall/Winter. Copies are available at:

- Community facilities
- Safeway & Save-on Foods grocery stores
- City's website www.richmond.ca (click on 'Recreation' or 'Culture' then look at the options in the right hand column)

An office copy is also available at your local school. Please ask at your school's Administration Office.

Please note: The Parks, Recreation and Culture Guide and most services offered by Richmond Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services are currently offered in English only.
