CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Nomination Deadline
March 14, 2011

The City of Richmond Arts Awards program recognizes the artistic achievements and contributions to the cultural community by City residents, artists, educators, organizations and business leaders. Created in partnership with the Richmond Arts Coalition, its purpose is to:

- Honour major contributions by individuals, organizations and business to the arts
- Cultivate greater visibility and understanding of the value of the arts
- Encourage excellence and build new leadership within the arts community
- Develop patrons for the arts

ELIGIBILITY

- Preference will be given to Richmond residents; however, nominees need not be a resident of the City of Richmond if they have had a substantive impact on the City of Richmond's cultural life.
- All arts disciplines are eligible, including (but not limited to) visual, performing, literary, environmental, culinary, craft/design, and new media practices.
- While self-nominations are not accepted, nominees should be made aware that they are being nominated and assist in providing application materials, if necessary.
- Nominators may submit only one nomination per category.
- City staff and/or the selection panel reserves the right to determine a nominee's appropriate award category.
- Award recipients are ineligible to win again in their category for three years.
- All materials submitted will become property of the City of Richmond and will not be returned to the nominator. Furthermore, submission of materials implies consent for the City of Richmond to disseminate such materials at its sole discretion such as posting to the City's website, dissemination to media and use at the awards ceremony.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Business and Arts	Recognizes a business that has made a significant contribution to the arts in Richmond by supporting a Richmond-based artist or arts organization through sponsorship, philanthropic and/or volunteer service.
