Kala Utsav

Enjoy classical arts and help the world

As part of Asian Heritage Month celebrations and in support of relief initiatives, the City of Richmond is pleased to co-sponsor Kala Utsav: 4th Annual Indian Arts Benefit for Global Relief on Saturday, May 10 from 7 – 9:30 p.m. at the Richmond Cultural Centre, 7700 Minoru Gate. Proceeds from this event will be donated to the Canadian Red Cross.

This magical night will captivate the audience with dance, voice and instrumental musical performances representing some of the finest traditional art forms from India.

Tickets are $18 for adults and $12 for seniors and students. Children five years and under are free.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. To order tickets, please call the Cultural Centre at 604-247-8300, visit the Richmond Cultural Centre Information Desk or email kala.utsav.richmond@gmail.com.

For more information, please contact Kirsten Schrader at 604-247-8324.

London Heritage Farm

Special events

Show Mom how much you care by bringing her to Mother's Day Tea from noon – 5:00 p.m. on May 10 and 11 at London Heritage Farm, located at 6511 Dyke Road. Relax in the heritage tea room overlooking the beautiful flower gardens and enjoy London Farm's own blend of "London Lady" tea and desserts. This experience is only $7.50 per person and includes something special for mothers. Reservations are now being accepted.

London Heritage Farm will also be hosting a Dahlia Tuber plant sale from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. on May 10, 11, 17 and 18. A wide variety of dahlia tubers from the heritage gardens are for sale for $3 each or two for $5. Trades for new varieties are welcome.

Find out how to keep honey bees and encourage Blue Orchard Tree bees to visit your garden by watching the bee keeping demonstration from 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. on May 17 and 18. All ages are welcome and entrance is by donation.

For more information or to make a Mother's Day Tea reservation, please contact the Farm at londonhf@telus.net or 604-271-5220.

Asian Heritage Month

Celebrate Richmond's diversity

In Richmond and across the country, the Government of Canada has designated the month of May as Asian Heritage Month. Together, the City and community groups will celebrate Pan-Asian arts and culture and explore Asian heritage and traditions.

Residents and visitors to Richmond are invited to take part in the exciting and educational exhibitions and performances held throughout the city, such as the Musicians Master Class, the Hong Wo Store exhibition, and the guided walk exploring the Asian elements of Britannia.

For a complete list of events, please contact 604-276-4391 or visit the City website at www.richmond.ca/events.
