Richmond O Zone

Come out and enjoy free festivities and entertainment

From now until February 28, the O Zone will be the destination for your free memorable celebration of the 2010 Olympic Winter Games.

Take a walk down BC Street, a replica of a main street showcasing the best from 82 communities from seven regions of the province: Kootenay Rockies, Cariboo Chilcotin, South Okanagan-Similkameen, Vancouver Coast & Mountains, Comox Valley, Sooke and Tofino.

Admire the 13 million cranberries that form giant Olympic rings by taking a free ride on the Ferris wheel located in Brighthouse Park.

Listen to interesting speakers, including authors and past Olympians at the Media Mixer speaker series located in Richmond City Hall Council Chambers.

Enjoy some Main Stage performances, including the Canadian Tenors and the Musical Expressions show, produced by Richmond recording artist, Cherele Jardine.

This and so much more can be found in Richmond's official celebration site for the 2010 Olympic Winter Games.

The Richmond O Zone runs from February 12 to 28 and is open from 3-11 p.m. Monday to Friday and noon to 11 p.m. on weekends.

New registration procedure

Two's Time program

Steveston Community Centre's Two's Time Program has a new registration procedure for the 2010/2011 school year.

A lottery system will now be used, as opposed to lining up and getting program space on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration lottery request forms will be available at the Steveston Community Centre front desk starting Monday, March 5.

Completed forms should be brought back to the front desk no later than Monday, April 5.

Two's Time at Steveston is a program that socially prepares two-year-olds for preschool through a play-based program that is two hours long for one or two mornings per week with rotating parent participation days.

For more information call 604-718-8080.
