Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the Recreation Fee Subsidy Program?

The Recreation Fee Subsidy Program (RFSP) helps people of all ages living in Richmond who are in financial hardship. RFSP participants receive financial support for many registered and drop-in parks, recreation and cultural programs offered by the City of Richmond and its Community Associations and Societies.

2. What is financial hardship?

Financial hardship is when a person has trouble paying for basic living costs such as food, clothing, housing, and does not have savings or other financial resources.

3. How is a family defined?

A family is defined as one or two adults, married or common-law, and their children (legal dependants 18 years and under and 19–24 years if enrolled full-time at a post secondary institution) who live in the same household.

4. What is “Income from other sources not shown”?

This includes world-wide income and monetary gifts received that have not been declared on your tax return.

5. How do I get copies of required documents?

Please visit www.richmond.ca/subsidy for more information or contact the RFSP office at subsidy@richmond.ca or 604-247-4909.

6. How long will it take to process my application?

Application processing takes an average of 10 business days if your application is complete with all supporting documentation. Your application status will be emailed or mailed to your home address.

7. When can I begin using my new RFSP subsidy?

RFSP 2021–2022 is valid from September 1, 2021 (or from the date of approval) to August 31, 2022 and applies to many registered and drop-in programs. Unused subsidies will expire on August 31, 2022.

8. Can I apply subsidy towards previous purchases that were completed before subsidy approval?

No, subsidy is valid from the date of approval and remains active until August 31, 2022. Subsidy will not be retroactively applied to previous purchases. If you would like to access subsidy, please submit an application and allow your application to be processed before completing any registrations or payments.

9. Do I need to re-apply each year?

Yes, all applicants need to re-apply as financial situations can change over time.

10. Who can I contact if I have further questions?

For more information, please contact the RFSP office at subsidy@richmond.ca or 604-247-4909.
