

Richmond RCMP Business Watch's goal is to provide the business community with crime prevention tips to help protect their property and create a safe working environment. Richmond businesses can request a free security assessment by calling: 604-207-4790.

To receive email alerts of neighbourhood commercial break and enters, register your business name and address at RCMP\_Business\_Watch@richmond.ca

For Richmond RCMP Business Watch information, go to: www.richmond.ca/businesswatch; or call 604-207-4790.

Commercial Break and Enters for: September, October, November and December 2009 & 2010

Richmond Zone Map

Comment [SS1]:
 Comment [SS2]:

Common Points of Entry:

Doors and windows continue to be the most common point of entry during a break and enter.

To increase the security of:

Doors - Install anti-pry plates on all exterior doors. Anti-pry plates are bolted to the door and cover the crack between the door and the door frame.

Windows - Security film or plexiglass should be installed on glass doors or windows near the door locks to reinforce the glass.