Dear Chief Election Officer,

The Canadian Labour Congress (CLC) registered as a campaign organizer for the 2008 local elections in your jurisdiction. Attached is the required disclosure on our province-wide campaign for your jurisdiction.

The CLC is a central labour organization that has historically participated in local elections, working with our affiliated labour councils, our affiliate trade unions, and our provincial BC Federation of Labour. Our labour councils take the lead by working with local candidates, and recommending which of them, if any, should receive an endorsement. The affiliated unions and the federation then work with us to distribute those endorsements to our members for their information.

We paid expenses directly for some labour councils. In addition, many of our affiliates and other labour councils have donated the value of their activities as an in-kind donation to the CLC campaign. Mailings and distributions of the labour council endorsements have occurred throughout areas that invariably encompass many jurisdictions.

The Campaign Organizers Guide was not published until the election process was well under way, and that delay did cause us some uncertainty. We paid for some expenses out of our election account, listed as Visioning under the "Other" category, that we no longer believe should be defined as election expenses. We are reporting them in any case because of their payment out of that election account.

The Act requires the reporting of the surplus in the campaign account for the candidate only, not for a Campaign Organizer. It lists no requirements for a campaign organizer surplus, either for reporting or for its distribution after the campaign. Accordingly, we have indicated "N/A" in that section of your forms.

In addition, our organization, working with a number of our affiliates, attempted throughout the spring to get clarity from the provincial government regarding the treatment of the multiple jurisdiction campaigns that we historically run. The Campaign Organizer Guide, at Page 30, notes that;

“Campaign organizers or elector organizations that conducted election campaigns in multiple jurisdictions are required to complete the filing requirements in each of those jurisdictions. The financial agent may produce a single report for the overall election campaign, including activities in each of the jurisdictions where candidates were endorsed.”

We have produced that single report, and have attached a list of all candidates in the province for whom we campaigned as a campaign organizer. All declarations have been notarized, and we believe meet the requirements of the Act and are consistent with the guide.

Yours truly,

VANCOUVER and DISTRICT LABOUR COUNCIL

March 13, 2009

David Weber,
Director, City Clerk's Office and Chief Election Officer
City of Richmond
6911 No 3 Road,
Richmond, B.C.

Dear Mr. Webber:

This letter is to clarify the disclosure requirements for the Vancouver and District Labour Council as outlined in your letter "Election Campaign Financial Disclosure – 2008 General Local and School Election" of February 9, 2009.

The Vancouver and District Labour Council is a subsidiary organization of the Canadian Labour Congress. All Labour Councils in the Province of British Columbia are part of the Canadian Labour Congress. As the campaign organizer for labour endorsed municipal candidates, the Canadian Labour Congress will be filing a disclosure statement with the City of Richmond as required under the Local Government Act.

However, for clarification of this process, I am including the following information.

During the 2008 Municipal elections, the Vancouver and District Labour Council endorsed candidates in four municipalities within our geographical region which includes the City of Richmond, City of Vancouver, City of North Vancouver, and District of North Vancouver.

The candidates endorsed in City of Richmond were Linda Barnes, David Reay, Sue Halsey Brandt, Evalina Halsey Brandt and Harold Steeves for City Council and Rod Belleza for School Board.

In support of these endorsements for the City of Richmond as well as Vancouver and North Vancouver, the Vancouver and District Labour Council forwarded our list of endorsed candidates to the Canadian Labour Congress which is our parent organization who were conducting a campaign in support of labour endorsed municipal candidates.

To: City of Richmond
Re: VDLC Municipal Election Disclosure

page 2

The Canadian Labour Congress printed a poll card containing all the candidates endorsed by the Vancouver and District Labour Council for the municipalities within our jurisdiction (the four previously mentioned). These poll cards were then mailed to the homes of union members (those for which the Canadian Labour Congress had the home addresses) residing within the boundaries of the City of Richmond, Vancouver, and North Vancouver.

The costs of printing and mailing these cards was borne by the Canadian Labour Congress and will be disclosed by the Canadian Labour Congress in their filing to the City of Richmond.

The Vancouver and District Labour Council did not spend or collect any money whatsoever in support of this. Our actual direct expenses were zero although there was a minimal amount of time and effort expended by myself which did not exceed a value of $500.00.

I hope that this sufficiently clarifies the situation and completes the requirements of the Local Government Act for disclosure.

Sincerely,

William Saunders
President
