20+ years

Why do you volunteer?

Volunteerism has been a strong focus of my family and my education. From a young age, I learned the importance of volunteering as a way of giving back to my community.

I really enjoyed supporting the Richmond Nature Park Society's Wild Things event and Cranberry Sale fundraiser.

How has volunteering connected you with people from diverse backgrounds and life experiences, and expanded your views?

I've learned a lot through conversations with other Richmond Nature Park Society volunteers that have helped me to better understand other points of view in the Richmond community.
