

City of Richmond Richmond Fire-Rescue

FACT SHEET
Crestwood Fire Hall
5731 No. 6 Road, Richmond, BC

Key Features

The Crestwood "No. 7" Fire Hall is a two-storey structure located at 5731 No. 6 Road. The fire hall sits on a 4,240 square metre site located in the Crestwood Light Industrial Business Park area.

This fire hall has two bays and a training room that serves dual purpose as Richmond Fire-Rescue's secondary emergency Operations Centre.

City of Richmond Richmond Fire-Rescue

FACT SHEET
Crestwood Fire Hall
5731 No. 6 Road, Richmond, BC

At the rear of the facility is a structure from which Richmond Fire-Rescue's Technical Rescue truck is deployed. The facility and truck house speciality equipment required at major incidents including: hazmat and decontamination equipment; air monitoring devices and confined space equipment. In total two apparatus and the Technical Rescue truck are deployed from this station.

Staff at this facility wash their personal protective equipment and repair / maintain Fire-Rescue's fire nozzles. Staff at this hall is responsible for the technical equipment maintenance program and managing Fire's staff rostering system.

Architects: IBG Hansen Architect Limited

Contractor: New Haven Construction

Official Opening: April 4, 1992

