Analysis

Richmond Public Art Program

The Public Art Program plays a key role in shaping, animating and enriching the public realm, civic pride and community identity. Artwork placed in the public realm has the power to engage the public, celebrate culture, broaden the diversity of arts experiences and opportunities, serve as an educational resource to expand public awareness and understanding of the arts, stimulate conversations, strengthen and support the arts community and inspire creativity.

Since Council’s adoption of the Public Art Program Policy in 1997, the Public Art Program’s collection has grown to a total of 188 works of public art, with 137 works currently on display around Richmond. Documentation of public art that is no longer on display is archived on the Public Art Program website.

Public art adds value to public and private development, enriching the public realm for residents and visitors to Richmond and advances Richmond’s standing as a model for high quality urban development. The City provides leadership in integrating public art with major civic facilities as well as small scale public infrastructure. The private sector has demonstrated that an investment in public art enhances their reputations as progressive city builders, while creating a liveable and desirable place to live and work. The Community Public Art Program engages members of the community in art making, discussions and public events. The recently expanded Public Art Education Program provides learning opportunities for both the general public and professional artists.

Introduction

The Richmond Public Art Program provides a means for including art in creating a culturally rich environment in a vibrant, healthy and sustainable city. Public art is incorporated into civic and private development projects to spark community participation and civic pride in the building of our public spaces. In addition to permanent and temporary artworks, the Public Art Program offers a stimulating program of educational and community engagement activities to increase public awareness of the arts and encourage public dialogue about art and issues of interest and concern to Richmond residents.

For 2016, projects featured the integration of new works of art into public spaces including local artist-designed utility cabinet wraps and manhole covers, a community-created set of banners to surround the Minoru Complex construction site, 11 high quality works on new private developments and the public art program's first large outdoor community mural at St. Alban's Parish.

At the Creative City Network of Canada 2017 Summit, held in Surrey, the City Centre Community Centre Public Art Plan was recognized as one of seven outstanding public art projects from across Canada in the Public Art Year in Review. The City Centre Community Centre Public Art Plan featured projects completed in 2015 under the Private Development Program, ebb & flow, the Civic Program, Motif of One and Many, and the Community Public Art Program, Harvest Full Moon Project.
2016 Public Art Projects

Civic Public Art Program

In 2016, public art was commissioned by the City and installed at community centres, parks, civic buildings and along city sidewalks. These included:

Britannia Shipyards
National Historic Site

Island by Deanne Achong and Faith Moosang

This public art project looks at the history of Richmond through a combination of historical and contemporary lenses. For the Lulu Suite public art project at the Richmond Olympic Oval, artists Deanne Achong and Faith Moosang have created three narrative-based projects that explore questions of technology, public space and the means in which history is collected, archived and shared. In 2016, the third work, Island, was permanently installed as part of the Seine Net Loft's new interactive exhibits. The imagery and sounds invite the audience to consider the beauty of the industrial presence rooted to the site by the hypnotic flow of the river.

Cover Stories

Manhole covers throughout Richmond by Greg Allen, Caroline Dyck, Susan Pearson and Jeff Porter

In April of 2016, the first of 200 artist-designed storm and sanitary manhole covers were installed enhancing the community's street experience. The four selected artists took common, previously unremarkable pieces of our civic infrastructure and transformed them into pieces of art that celebrate Richmond's cultural heritage. The fabrication company, Westview Sales Limited, sponsored the project, producing the manhole covers at no additional cost. They help establish a sense of place, remembrance and pride.

Colouring My Life by Hilda Yuet Yi Fung

As the Richmond Animal Protection Society (RAPS) outgrew its Richmond Animal Shelter facilities, a new trailer was added as an extension to the operation. RAPS, Parks and Public Art coordinated the enhancement of the trailer with an artist-designed wrap representing the themes and values of the Richmond Animal Protection Society. The artwork draws on the current trend of graphic colouring book design depicting animals housed at the shelter and local fauna.

Gilbert Pump Station
Returning Home - Sockeye Salmon
by Danny Chen

This wrap builds on this location adjacent to the Fraser River to reference Steveston’s rich fishing heritage.

City Utility Cabinet Wrap Program

The Public Art Program, in partnership with Engineering and Public Works and the Transportation Department, installed four new art wraps around Richmond in 2016. These included:

No. 5 Rd. Pump Station
Sunset at Steveston by Danny Chen

The artwork depicted at this pump station utility kiosk is a watercolour representation of Steveston Harbour at sunset.
Phoenix Pump Station
Homage to Bubbles by Bruce Walther
This artwork is a photographic homage to the Community Mosaic Project done by youth and adults at the Steveston Community Centre in 2007. The mosaic represents Steveston's canning, farming and fishing heritage and the meeting of the Fraser River and the Strait of Georgia.

Community Public Art Program

The Sharing Farm
Black Earth Rusted Stories by Blake Williams
This work celebrates the history of Richmond's agricultural heritage and the farmers who have worked the rich, alluvial soils of the Fraser River delta. The assemblage of worn, rusted tools, reminiscent of those used by generations of families who worked this land, provides insight into the daily life, ingenuity and perseverance which lies at the heart of sustainable agriculture. The artwork is located on the north wall of the newly opened Mary's Barn, named in honour of Mary Gazetas, the founding member of the Richmond Fruit Tree Sharing Project now known as the Sharing Farm.

6411 Lynas Lane Utility box
Into the Trails by Joanne Hastie
This artwork depicts the natural rain forest in which we live and our accessibility to a maintained trail system. Inspired by nature, Into the Trails reminds us to revisit our trails and thank all the people who make them accessible.

St. Alban's Parish
The Richmond Peace Labyrinth Mural by Joey Mallet
The Public Art Program supported a community proposal from The Richmond Peace Labyrinth Committee to assist in the creation of the Public Art Program's first large outdoor community mural. The Richmond Peace Labyrinth is based on ancient worldwide designs of meditative labyrinths, and is a replica of the labyrinth at Chartres Cathedral in France. The mural completes the site in creating an experience.

In addition, several civic public art projects were commissioned in 2016, and are scheduled for installation in 2017-2018 (see Appendix 1). which builds on the beauty of the labyrinth, references motifs of Chartres Cathedral, and extolls the values of peace, beauty and inclusivity. Richmond Peace Labyrinth and the mural are a contemplative public space for all people, regardless of religion and culture.

Pianos on the Street 2016
The third annual program built bridges and delighted passers-by throughout the community by bringing pianos to open-air locations in Minoru Plaza, Britannia Shipyards site and the Terra Nova Rural Park, from July through September 2016. Each piano was decorated either by a local arts group or school arts program to represent the flavour of the community where it was situated and the public was invited to play the instruments and upload media of themselves to a dedicated website, www.supportpiano.com. This project was sponsored by Pacey’s Pianos.

Minoru Park

Minoru Complex Community Banners by Caroline Elise Dyck and Rhonda Weppler

As part of the Minoru Civic Precinct Public Art Plan, members of the community were encouraged to participate in the creation of colourful construction hoarding designs on the Minoru Complex Development site. The artists brought the “past” and “future” of the new facility to life with poetry and sculptures by visitors of all ages who took part in workshops over several weeks. The artworks were unveiled during Culture Days and were so successful that a second set of banners was printed to adorn the Granville Avenue side of the construction site.

Bridgeport Industrial Park
Pollinator Pasture Picnic

The Pollinator Pasture hosted a picnic as part of this year’s Doors Open celebration. The picnic invited project partners to host a tent and celebrate the first bloom of the Pollinator Pasture with community members. Tent partners included BC Hydro, VanCity, West Coast Seeds and the Richmond Art Gallery. Artist workshops by Sharon Kallis and a participatory sculpture by Samuel Roy Bois engaged visitors as did tours of the pollinator pasture by staff and project leads. Art activation of the park continued through summer 2016 with the making of butterfly net sculptures, by artist Sharon Kallis who led community members in a series of rope-making circles. The butterfly net sculptures were installed in early August with a final gathering and celebration. The Pasture itself is a collaborative effort with Sustainability, Parks and Public Art with private partners, all coordinated by an Emily Carr University Research Team, directed by Dr. Cameron Carriere.

Private Development
Public Art Program

Through the development applications process, private developers continued to provide high quality public art to enrich the public realm. In 2016, the following projects were completed:

Museo
9580 Alexandra Road
Sponsor: Am-Pri Developments
Layers by Christian Huizenga

This work is the outcome of an innovative partnership between Emily Carr University of Art + Design (ECUAD), Am-Pri Group and the City of Richmond. ECUAD students developed the Alexandra Road Public Art Plan in 2015. The Plan was then used to guide the artist selection process for the private development. Artists applying for the opportunity were required to attend a series of three professional development workshops as part of the Art at Work Professional Development Program for artists. Recent graduate, Christian Huizenga, was selected through an arms-length selection process. A reflection of soil, Layers is a continuous garden, railing and bench, inspired by the rich aggregation of sediment layers upon which Richmond is built. By defining the greenway, the piece draws emphasis to the continued preservation of green spaces within densifying cities.
Sorrento
8633 Capstan Way
Sponsor: Pinnacle
Site Unseen by Mia Weinberg

These four sliding doors feature two images of leaf veins and two maps of Richmond: one large scale and one detailed scale of each. Serving a practical function, the work surrounds a sanitary pump station, hence the title, Site Unseen, is a whimsical reference to the mechanical networks and conduits that lie hidden beneath our streets. Just as leaf veins are networks for transporting the lifeblood of a plant, one can imagine streets, power, water, and drainage systems as networks transporting the lifeblood of a city.

Dream of the River by Glen Andersen

Designed and built to resemble an archaic relic, Dream of the River is a surrealist folly wherein a full-size fishing boat “skeleton” is visually married to a salmon backbone. The sculpture is perched on a grass berm overlooking the Fraser River contained within a platform that extends out from a pedestrian walkway.

5460 to 5560 Moncton Street
Sponsor: Am-Pri Developments
Poet’s Promenade by Jeanette G. Lee

Paying homage to Richmond’s deep Japanese roots, this portion of sidewalk along Moncton Street is imprinted with images of leaves and embedded with stainless steel text of haiku poems by Batsuo Basho (translated by Keiko Parker). Poems representing the four seasons bring pedestrians on this trail symbolically through the many “seasons” of life.

The moon moves swiftly but the tree tops still hold the rain.

Signal, Noise by Mark Ashby

The work consists of nine unique entry gates to mark the entry points off the south-facing access on Oxford Lane. Digitally fabricated from steel bars, each gate presents a unique three-dimensional surface. The gates also cast interesting and variable shadows on the front walk and gardens of the townhouses.

Closer Than by Bill Pechet

This installation consists of an offset grid of 300 identical convex safety mirrors mounted in six rows of 50 mirrors each. Sited along the wall of a new mixed-use housing project facing the Brighouse Canada Line Station platform, the mirrors produce a shimmering visual plane which presents the station itself as its subject. The transience of people, space and light produce an evolving and shifting portrait of the station and commuters where, just like in car mirrors, we are closer than we appear.

Spirit of Steveston by Cheryl Hamilton and Mike Vandermeer

Located on the former site of Steveston Secondary School, this work pays homage to both the golden era of Steveston’s marine industry and the site’s previous institutional use. The boat and gulls are crafted from stainless steel, polished to a mirror finish, and detailed with cast elements and etched surface treatments. Into the sky, the artists have launched a scene that would be familiar to many of Steveston’s previous generations.

Snow/Migration by Mark Ashby

This sculptural work is inspired by the migratory passage of Snow Geese. Five lamp standards with broad folded metal reflectors and high-power white LEDs are programmed to provide an ambient light show. Local sound sensors located on the lamp standards override the ambient program with an interactive experience allowing the artwork to respond to the sound of low-flying aircraft, the cadence of a voice or to be “played” like a musical instrument.

Untitled [Nest for Owls] by Alyssa Schwann and Michael Seymour

This public art project was created in response to the need for habitat for owls as well as their food sources. To house the nest, a pollarded willow tree was used for its fast-growing characteristics, suitability for the site and historic agricultural presence. The nest itself is a ceramic vessel modeled on an existing tree nest, making it the ideal dimensions for a safe and habitable nesting site.

Riva Development

Sponsor: Onni
Upriver by Rebecca Belmore

This sculptural installation is inspired by the nearby Fraser River and the spawning migration of millions of Pacific salmon and the form references the ingenious construction of the bentwood box made by the Northwest Coastal peoples for centuries. Cast in bronze, with a copper-like patina, Upriver is rendered to look like it is made out of cedar logs and planks at various levels of processing, referencing the more recent history of the Fraser River as a transportation conduit for the forest industry. The transition from cedar planks to salmon in this piece suggests the inseparable ecological dependency between the migrating salmon and the coastal rainforest.

5233 Gilbert Road
Sponsor: Intracorp
Three Ginseng Roots by Evan Foon Lee

Balancing modern materials and processes with natural forms and colours, these three glass panels are installed within the water feature to give the sense that the roots are floating. In addition to being a medicinal plant used by many cultures, and especially in traditional Chinese medicine, ginseng is grown throughout Canada, including on farms along the Fraser River. The artwork promotes good health, well-being and a connection with nature.

Several private development public art projects were commissioned in 2015, and are scheduled for installation in 2017-2018 (see Appendix 1).
Unique Projects

No.3 Road Art Columns

Exhibition 9: Small Monuments to Food (Part 2)

This series of artworks (installed December 2015) examined how Richmond’s diversity of cultures—including our social, economic and political histories—have influenced the way we think, produce, consume, protect and build community and identity around food. Participating local artists were Eric Button, Catherine Chan and Deborah Koenker.

Canada Line Terminus Art Plinth

Skydam by Nathan Lee,

The second of two artworks commissioned for the Brighouse Canada Line Station Art Plinth Exhibition was completed in February 2016. The artwork is comprised of a white steel plated beaver dam with a family of fibreglass red beavers. The work references the colours of the Canadian flag and acknowledges the cultural and economic importance of the North American beaver. The artwork will remain on display through 2017.

Exhibition 10: How Art Works

The art columns played host to a contest launched in early 2016 in support of the How Art Works campaign (originally created by communication design consultants, 123w). The contest invited creative people to submit an artistic graph to communicate how the arts impact their health and well-being and/or that of the community. Nine artists were selected through an arms-length selection process. People’s Choice and Honorable Mentions were also selected via online polling.

The pop-up radio station also promoted other Culture Days events happening throughout the city.

Promotion of the Public Art Collection

Richmond’s Public Art collection can be browsed online at www.richmond.ca/publicart where visitors can also download an interactive map for smartphones and a series of 10-minutes self-guided walking tours. In 2016, two illustrated public art walking tour brochures (City Centre/Richmond Olympic Oval and Steveston Waterfront Neighbourhood) were updated for distribution online and as hard copies.

Art at Work

Presented in partnership with the Canadian Artists Representation/Front des artistes canadiens (CARFAC) and the Richmond Art Gallery, this series of professional development workshops and events was designed to provide artists with the knowledge and skills required for pursuing a professional arts practice in the fields of public art, visual art and community arts. Workshops and events for the winter and spring series were free.
Public Art Advisory Committee

The Richmond Public Art Advisory Committee (RPAAC) is a Council-appointed voluntary advisory committee that provides input on public art policy, planning, education and promotion. At monthly Committee meetings, members received presentations on new civic, private development and community project proposals and provided feedback and recommendations. Updates on discussions on public art for upcoming development were provided by the Committee’s appointee to the Advisory Design Panel, Xuedong Zhao.

In 2016, the Committee held three facilitated workshops to review the Administrative Procedures Manual and recommended updates to improve clarity and administration of the Public Art Program, support art spaces, diversity, public awareness and economic potential.
