

Free 2026 Income Tax Preparation Assistance in Richmond

The following list provides information on the free income tax preparation assistance services in Richmond for the 2025 tax-filing season. The community organizations below offer a mix of income tax preparation assistance, including drop-off/pick-up and in-person/virtual options. These services are primarily for residents with modest incomes and simple tax situations. A modest income typically means the total family income is at or below the amounts listed, based on family size*:

- 1 person ($40,000)
- 2 people ($55,000)
- 3 people ($60,000)

*Note: family size includes an individual or a couple and their dependants.

For more details on eligibility, visit www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/community-volunteer-income-tax-program.

The deadline for filing personal income tax returns is April 30, 2026.

Please bring valid government-issued photo identification and all relevant documents such as T4, T5 and Canada Child Benefit slips.
